

8th Annual CI Arb Canada Symposium on Commercial Arbitration

Catherine Dixon, Director General

Catherine Dixon joined CI Arb in May 2020 having just completed a world-record breaking circumnavigation of the world on a tandem. Prior to her expedition Catherine spent time in chief executive roles at the Law Society of England and Wales, Askham Bryan College and NHS Resolution. Catherine has also held senior leadership roles at the NSPCC and BUPA. Catherine has served as a trustee and non-executive director on a number of boards, including the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution and she is currently a trustee of Stonewall. Catherine is a non-practicing solicitor and accredited mediator and has an MBA.

Janet is a professor of law (past associate dean) at Osgoode Hall Law School, a member of the Ontario Bar, and a licensed legal consultant of the New York State Bar. She authors Canada's main text on private international law and many other books and articles in the field of international and comparative dispute resolution. She is currently Vice Chair of ICC Canada and, in 2018 received the CI Arb Canada's Award for Distinguished Service to Arbitration.