

8th Annual CI Arb Canada Symposium on Commercial Arbitration

Marek Krasula

Marek Krasula is Regional Director for North America at the ICC International Court of Arbitration (SICANA, Inc.) in New York and promotes ICC Dispute Resolution Services throughout the United States and Canada.

He previously headed the ICC North American case management team as Counsel where he administered hundreds of ICC arbitrations and scrutinized over 150 ICC awards in relation to a broad range of industries. Marek has served as a lecturer in international arbitration at the Université de Montréal law faculty and Deputy Counsel in the ICC Secretariat's Paris office dealing primarily with cases in Central and Eastern Europe (including Russia and CIS countries). Prior to joining the ICC, Marek was executive assistant to Mr. Justin P. J. Trudeau, a research assistant in the Senate of Canada and a consultant at the International Centre for Human Rights and Democratic Development (Rights & Democracy). Marek is a member of the Quebec Bar and holds an LL.M. from Georgetown University. He is also a member of the New York City Bar International Commercial Disputes Committee.